Article 9 – Progress and financial reports

During the realisation of the project, the Second Party will submit to the First Party interim report covering the activities fixed in Annex 1. This report shall be submitted within 30 days after the realization of activities fixed in Annex 1.

Article 10 – Audits

The Second party will certify, through certified financial report, that the funds have been used in accordance with the intended purpose and that the financial data contained in the report is in accordance with the Second party's financial records. It will further certify that all expenditures have been made in accordance with the Organisation's Financial Regulations, which provide for a detailed procedure of internal control and an annual external verification of the accounts by the external auditor.

Article 11 – Procurement

1. National and EU law on public procurement shall be complied with by the Parties at any level in the implementation of the Project.
2. The applicable procurement law is the law of the country in which the procurement is being carried out.

Article 12 - Conflict of interest

1. The Parties shall take all necessary measures to prevent any situation that could compromise the impartial and objective performance of the Agreement. Such conflict of interests could arise in particular as a result of economic interest, political or national affinity, family or emotional ties, or any other relevant connection or shared interest. Any conflict of interests which could arise during the performance of the Agreement must be notified to the other Party in writing without delay. In the event of such conflict, the Party concerned shall immediately take all necessary steps to resolve it.
2. Each Party reserves the right to verify that such measures are adequate and may require additional measures to be taken, if necessary, within a time limit which it shall set. The Parties shall ensure that their staff, board and directors are not placed in a situation which could give rise to conflict of interests. Each Party shall immediately replace any member of its staff exposed to such a situation.

Article 13 - Confidentiality

Both Parties and their personnel employed, be that contractually or nominally engaged, shall maintain professional secrecy for the duration of this Agreement and three years after completion thereof. In this connection, except with the prior written consent of the other Party, neither Party nor the personnel employed shall at any time communicate to any person or entity any information that may adversely affect the successful implementation of the Project.

This provision is without prejudice to the First Party's obligation to make the information available or to make them public, if required by relevant legal regulations.

In case, that for this agreement is necessary that the Second party would process personal data on behalf of First Party, the Second party commit to process personal data specifically under the conditions set by valid legislation of the Slovak Republic for the area protection of the personal data on the basis of a special legal title (contact with the First party, or if it is possible in accordance with the legislation on the basis of the First party's authorization), in which the First party sets the subject and duration of processing of personal data, purpose of processing, the list and scope of personal data, the categories of concerning subjects and the obligations and rights of the Operator, as well as the other conditions set by valid legislation of the Slovak Republic for the field of the personal data protection.

Article 14 - Intellectual property rights

Both Parties shall take measures to prevent, detect and correct irregularities fraud, corruption or other illegal activity when implementing the Project. If at any stage one of the Parties should become aware of, or suspect that, irregularities, fraud, corruption or other illegal activity have occurred, they shall promptly investigate the matter and, if the investigation demonstrates that an irregularity occurred, shall inform the other Party and take all reasonable measures in accordance with its rules and policies to ensure the situation ceases and does not happen again.

Article 15 –Liability

The financial responsibility of the First Party under this Agreement is limited to funding the amount indicated at Article 6 above. The Agreement does not provide or imply, directly or indirectly any responsibility or liability of the First Party for any other claims for damages, loss or injury from a third party, which the Second Party may sustain in consequence of or arising out of the implementation of the Project and the contractual relationship and/or Second Partyships entered into by the Second Party for the purpose of the Project

The Second Party shall not be held responsible for the unsuccessful implementation of the Project, resulting from the fact that the Second Party personnel and/or the Second Party contractors and Second Party, as the case may be, have not been granted, by the countries involved in the Project financed by this contribution:

- a) access to the sites, equipment and facilities where activities are undertaken to ensure effective implementation and oversight;
- b) the necessary site security and personnel safety;
- c) any necessary visas and travel documents.

Article 16 – Irregularities

1. Irregularities are defined in accordance with Article 12.2 of the Regulation.

2. In case an irregularity has come to the attention of one Party, that Party shall immediately inform the other Party thereof in writing.

3. In cases where measures to remedy any such irregularity are taken by the competent bodies referred to in Chapter 12 of the Regulation, including measures to recover funds, the Party concerned shall be solely responsible for complying with such measures and returning such funds to the Programme. The Second party shall, in such cases, return the recovered funds through the Promoter.

Article 17 – Suspension of payments and reimbursement

1. In cases where a decision to suspend payments and/or request reimbursement from the First Party is taken by the Programme Operator, the National Focal Point or the Donor State[s], the Second Party shall take such measures as are necessary to comply with the decision.

2. For the purposes of the previous paragraph, the First Party shall, without delay, submit a copy of the decision referred to in the previous paragraph to the Second Party.

Article 18 – Termination

1. The Parties agree that the termination of the contractual relationship established by this Agreement occurs:

a) Once the Parties have fulfilled all their obligations under the Agreement,

b) By written mutual consent of the Parties

2. The Second Party has a right, after consultation with the Second Party, to terminate the Agreement:

a) if Second Party has breached its contractual obligations in a way that prevents the implementation of the Project,

b) if Second Party fails to fulfil or has intentionally breached contractual obligations

c) in case of impossibility of performance of the Agreement due to objective reasons, which occurred on the side of the Second Party.

3. Termination of the Agreement is effective from the day of delivery of the notice of termination from the Agreement to the Second Party. If requested by the Program Operator, the Project First Party may claim repayment of all or part of the Project Grant Share used in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

Article 19 - Assignment

1. Neither Party shall have the right to transfer their rights and obligations under this Agreement without the prior consent of the other Party.

2. The Parties acknowledge that all assignment of rights and obligations under this Agreement is dependent upon the Programme Operator's prior consent in accordance with the provisions of the Project Contract.

Article 20 – Amendments

1. Any amendment to this Agreement, including its Annexes, shall be the subject of a written agreement concluded by the Parties.

Article 21 – Severability

1. If any provision of this Agreement (or part of any provision) is found by any court, tribunal or other authority of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed not to form part of the Agreement, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of the Agreement shall not be affected.

2. If a provision of this Agreement (or part of any provision) is found illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to amend such provision such that, as amended, it is legal, valid and enforceable and, to the greatest extent possible, achieves the Parties' original intent.

Article 23 – Governing law and settlement of disputes

1. The construction, validity and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of Slovak republic, regardless of the provisions on conflict of laws.
2. Any dispute relating to the conclusion, validity, interpretation or performance of this Agreement shall be resolved amicably through consultation between the Parties.
3. If the parties fail to resolve the dispute by mutual agreement or settlement, the dispute shall be promptly presented to the Programme Operator, who at its own discretion may convene a joint meeting of Programme Operator and the litigants or the Programme Operator and all parties to this Agreement, and in order to resolve a dispute and reach an agreement out of court settlement. If the Programme Operator does not convene a joint meeting or the parties to the dispute do not resolve the dispute on a joint meeting convened by the Programme Operator pursuant to the preceding sentence, the dispute will be settled before a competent general court of the Slovak Republic. Each Party expresses its irrevocable consent that the courts of the Slovak Republic, whose jurisdiction is given by the registered office of the First Party, shall have exclusive jurisdiction to resolve any disputes or claims arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or its conclusion.

This Agreement has been prepared in two originals, of which each Party has received one.
