- 13. Limitation of Liability The liability of each party, irrespective of from whatever legal base it might be claimed, for any actions, omissions or failures of itself, its employees, officers, contractors and/or agents, that causes any damage, loss, cost or expense incurred by the other party is limited to an amount equal to the Total Contract Price and to the fact that the damage is due to gross negligence, intentional default or fraud of the party, its employees, officers, contractors or agents. The liability does in no event include any consequential damages, loss of profit, goodwill or anticipated savings. Seller can in no event be held liable for any (direct or indirect) damages, costs or losses on whatever legal basis (i) as a consequence of or in relation to the use of and the purpose for which the Buyer purchased the Guarantees of origin, and (ii) in case Seller is not able to transfer the Guarantees of Origin through the Cancellation Statement to the Buyer, because the issuance of the Cancellation Statement has not been executed, due to reasons attributable to the Registry and outside the control of the Seller, and provided that the Seller made the request for the Cancellation and has complied with all requirements for the request and the issuance of it with the Registry.
- 14. Force Majeure If a Party is prevented or delayed in its performance of any of its obligations under this Agreement by a Force Majeure Event (as defined below), that Party's performance of such obligations shall be suspended during the existence of such Force Majeure Event, and that Party shall not be responsible for any damages suffered by the other Party as a result of such suspended performance except as provided below in this provision, provided that the Party invoking Force Majeure shall use reasonable efforts to mitigate the effect of a Force Majeure event.
- "Force Majeure Event" means any circumstances which were not foreseeable by the Parties at the time of entering this Agreement and could not have reasonable been anticipated and avoided by a party or that are beyond a party's reasonable control and which makes it impossible for the Party invoking the Force Majeure to perform its delivery or acceptance obligations under this Agreement. Such circumstances include but are not limited to war, explosion or fire, natural calamities, general strike, riot, civil disturbances, sabotage, embargoes, Acts of God, failure of the Registry or other causes similar or dissimilar to the foregoing.
- A party who desires relief according to this provision must notify the other party of the Force Majeure preventing or delaying its performance without delay and shall keep the other party informed of subsequent developments in such circumstances as they occur.
- 15. Co-operation and Reasonable Best Efforts Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Seller and the Buyer (a) shall co-operate with the other in connection with consummating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (b) agree to use their reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. For purposes of this provision, the covenant of the parties to use their "reasonable best efforts" shall not require any party to (i) incur any unreasonable expenses, (ii) agree to materially limit the conduct of its business or (iii) divest itself of any material assets or properties, in each case except as otherwise contemplated hereunder.
- 16. Confidentiality The parties shall treat the contents of this Agreement and any arbitration award related to this Agreement as confidential. Neither party shall disclose information concerning the contents of this Agreement's or any arbitration awards related to this Agreement to third parties or disclose this Agreement or an arbitration award in part or in full without prior written consent of the other party, unless required by law or governmental regulation. For the purpose of this provision, Affiliates of the Seller and/or Buyer are not deemed as third parties.
- This shall not apply to information which is required to be disclosed to the Registry and/or to the related issuing body or to other third parties, in order to perform this Agreement. The Parties specifically acknowledge, that this Agreement will be published in the Central Registry of Contracts of the Slovak Republic.
- Information required for the calculation of indexes may to the extent necessary be disclosed by the parties to the index publisher without the prior written approval of the other unless otherwise agreed upon.
- Each party is obliged to keep all other information with which they become acquainted in respect of the other party's business or business operations confidential, with the exception of information which is public knowledge, or which is deemed public accessible at the time of the disclosure.

17. Termination	Either party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect for serious cause by giving written notice to the defaulting party. Serious cause includes, but is not limited to, bankruptcy of a party (the defaulting party) or a party (the defaulting party) being insolvent or is liquidated whether voluntarily or involuntarily. Circumstances constituting Force Majeure under this Agreement shall not be deemed as a serious cause. In addition, either party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect upon the execution or ratification of, change in or amendment to, any law, rule or regulation (or the application or interpretation of any law, rule or regulation) that occurs after the date of this Agreement but prior to the Delivery, and which (i) materially adversely affects either party; or (ii) results in the performance of any obligation of either of the parties under this Agreement being unlawful. The terminating party shall send a written notice to the other party stating the date of termination of the Agreement. Such notification must be given in writing by mail. The right under this provision is in addition to any other remedies available under this Agreement or at law. The calculation of any applicable termination amount is done in accordance with and subject to Clause 13 (limitation of Liability).
18. Assignment	Neither party shall be entitled to assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any person, without the prior written consent of the other party. Such consent may not be withheld unreasonably or delayed, and any purported assignment, charge, or transfer in violation of this Clause shall be void. The Seller is entitled to assign and transfer its rights under this Agreement by way of security to or in favour of any bank or financial institutions in relation to the financing of that Party's business activities
19. Notifications and Correspondence	All notices or other correspondence under this Agreement shall be in writing and in the English language and shall be deemed to have been received by a party: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) if delivered by hand or courier, on the day of delivery;</li> <li>(b) if posted, on the 5th Business Day after being mailed; or</li> <li>(c) if sent by e-mail, on the day it is sent to the respective addresses set out in No.2 and No. 3;</li> </ul> Notifications related to change or termination of this Agreement shall only be announced to the other Party by hand, by mail or by the courier, according to the conditions of delivery set out in letters (a) and (b) of this provision. All such notices and other communications shall be addressed as set out above in No 2, if to the Seller, and as set out in No 3, if to the Buyer or to such other addresses, as may be notified in accordance with this provision.
20. Severability	In the event that any provision of this Agreement is declared invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction in any jurisdiction, such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent declared invalid or unenforceable without affecting the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement, and the remainder of this Agreement shall remain binding on the parties hereto. However, in the event that any such provision shall be declared unenforceable due to its scope, breadth or duration, then it shall be modified to the scope, breadth or duration permitted by law or governmental or regulatory authority and shall continue to be fully enforceable as so modified.
21. Entire Agreement	This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, written and oral, between the parties with respect to its subject matter and constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. Any amendments to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall have no effect unless signed by the duly authorised representatives of the parties.
22. Governing law	This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Austria, explicitly excluding the rules of the CISG (Convention for International Sale of Goods). Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, interpretation, termination, or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) (the "Rules"). The place of arbitration shall be Vienna, the Republic of Austria. The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitral awards shall be the final decision in the case and shall be binding for the Parties. In the event of any difficulty in relation to the performance of the Agreement, the parties undertake to proceed diligently with good faith negotiations in an attempt to find the solution best adapted to the situation. The difficulty shall be raised by means of a written communication from one party to the other.

force of the

This Agreement shall be published in the Central Registry of Contracts of the Slovak Republic, in accordance with the Act. No. 211/2000 Coll., on freedom of information, and the Act. No. 40/1964 Coll., the Civil Code, under the Slovak law.

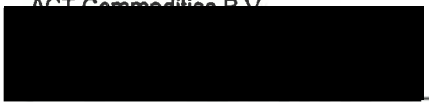

The Buyer shall ensure the publication of this Agreement in the Central Registry of Contracts of the Slovak Republic under this provision in 24 hours after the receipt of this Agreement signed by both parties. The Buyer shall notify the Seller of the publication of the Agreement immediately, no later than 24 hours after the publication. Along with the notification of publication, the Buyer shall provide the Seller with a web address of the Central Registry of Contracts of the Slovak Republic, leading to a published Agreement.

This Agreement enters into force on the day following the day of its publication under this provision

In the event that the publication of the Agreement is not accepted or the Agreement is deleted from the Central Registry of Contracts, the enforceability of the Agreement is in no event affected.

Please confirm that the foregoing correctly sets forth the terms of our agreement by executing the copy of this Agreement enclosed for that purpose and returning it to us.
